South Korea is considered one of the closest allies and greatest friends of the US in Asia today, whereas North Korea is arguably one of Washington's biggest headaches. This course examines the development of US-Korea relations from the first encounters in the late 19th century to the contemporary period. Students will learn to apply different prisms of diplomatic history to the analysis of transformations in political, economic, and cultural relations between the US and North and South Korea and to locate those changes within the regional dynamics of East Asia

Above class seeks to answer the question of "Who are today's college students?" by examining how the identities, demographics, and experiences of college students have changed over time. We explore current trends in higher education and their implications for today's college student and future generation of students. Above class taught online.

EDUC-U 450 FOUNDATION RES LEADERSHIP (2 CR)

Above course explores how identities, values, and beliefs of college students have continued to change throughout the history of higher education. Understanding campus climate, diverse student identities, and the role of social justice in education are central to a practitioner's ability to be culturally competent and to create inclusive practices.

F 450: Students in the above class should be aware that a flexible schedule is required when scheduling coachings with their faculty coach. Students must attend the Chamber Music Informational meeting held in the first week of classes to find out important information regarding group sign-up and placement auditions. Time and location of the meetings will be announced to enrolled students and will be posted on the chamber music website at https://tinyurl.com/y9nkywdd. All undergraduate members of the group must be enrolled in MUS-F 450, unless making up an incomplete. All graduate members of the group must be enrolled in MUS-F 550, unless making up an incomplete. Students must obtain the permission and signature of a faculty coach for their group and receive seven coachings, performing at least once in a public setting. Groups that are unable to find a chamber coach will be assigned to a faculty member by the Head of Chamber Music. Visit the above chamber music website for further details on guidelines and required paperwork or email chmusic@indiana.edu with questions.
