TOPIC: "Pilgrimage: Walking the Camino de Santiago"

Regular tuition will be charged for this course + an additional program fee & travel expenses. The course will begin in Madrid, Spain immediately after the end of the Spring semester and will last approximately eight days, with travel commencing prior to the course & after the end of the course. By walking the final 112km of the Camino de Santiago and discussing medieval writing about pilgrimage, students will reflect on the place of medieval ideas, art, and culture in our own world. Participants need to be in good health in order to complete the walking portions of this course, which will require walking up to 16 miles a day over sometimes mountainous terrain. For more information, or to apply to the course, students can see www.go.iu.edu/medievalpilgrimage or contact Prof. Gayk at gayk@indiana.edu. NOTE: Applications open at the end of September and are due in October. Late applications will be accepted on a rolling basis as space allows.

VT: DOING BUSINESS IN GERMANY

Above class meets online Tuesdays

Burers and representatives from European organizations and companies will present the European market and its cultural and economic climate.

Cuba

VT: CUBA

Above class meets first eight weeks only

Businesses and government officials from Cuba will present the Cuban economic environment, its political and governmental structure, its history and culture, and its interactions with the United States.
The goal of the Global Foundations Core is to introduce strategies to analyze and interpret the economic, social, political, legal, cultural, and technological influences that drive the global economy. The Business of Cuba course offers an academic global experience in which students learn about industry and business issues relevant to Cuba. The course will focus on a specific business example of the transitioning economic landscape in Cuba. The course is designed to be a research-based, focused, hands-on learning experience. Students will learn about Cuban economy, businesses, history, politics, and culture to approach the central learning question.

F 450 : Students in the above class should be aware that a flexible schedule is required when scheduling coachings with their faculty coach. Students must attend the information meeting held in the first week of classes to find out important information regarding group sign-up and placement auditions. Time and location of the meetings will be announced to enrolled students and will be posted on the chamber music website at https://chmusic.indiana.edu. All undergraduate members of the group must be enrolled in MUS-F 450, unless making up an incomplete. All graduate members of the group must be enrolled in MUS-F 550, unless making up an incomplete. Students must obtain the permission and signature of a faculty coach for their group and receive seven coachings, performing at least once in a public setting. Groups that are unable to find a chamber coach will be assigned to a faculty member by the Head of Chamber Music. Visit the above chamber music website for further details on guidelines and required paperwork or email chmusic@indiana.edu with questions.
